Norma's Cafe to Host 6th Annual "Biscuits for Boobies" Sept. 25

Portion of restaurant sales to benefit Susan G. Komen 3-Day for the Cure

(DALLAS) – On Friday, Sept. 25, Dallas' comfort food icon, Norma's Cafe, will host Biscuits for Boobies, an annual event at all three locations that benefits Susan G. Komen 3-Day for the Cure, specifically providing sponsorship funds to three local teams, Breast Friends Forever, Pink Phoenix and Angels for the Cure.

Guests are encouraged to order fresh biscuits and creamy gravy, or their favorite comfort food dish, with a portion of the day's sales from all three locations being donated to support the two teams' fundraising efforts. In addition, donation cans will be available at all locations, giving guests another chance to support the teams. Each individual has a fundraising goal of $2,300.

"Giving back to the community is a top priority at Norma's Cafe, and we enjoy not only getting the chance to support these teams, but learning about their personal stories," said Ed Murph, owner of Norma's Cafe. "It's an honor to raise funds for such a great cause like Susan G. Komen, and show our guests that we are passionate about helping in any way we can."

To promote additional awareness, Norma's Cafe will be serving Pink Lemonade Pies – pink lemonade, whipped cream topping, milk and a graham cracker crust, available at all locations for $2.99 per slice.

Through last year's Biscuits for Boobies promotion, Norma's Cafe and its guests donated $3,400 to support the Susan G. Komen 3-Day. This year, Norma's Cafe, Breast Friends Forever, Pink Phoenix and Angels for the Cure team members will be dressed in pink to support the cause.
