Norma's Cafe Partners with Special Olympics Texas for Annual Tip-A-Cop Event

Local officers serve guests for donations to Texas chapter

(DALLAS) – Dallas dining icon, Norma's Cafe, will partner with Special Olympics Texas on Tuesday, May 8 for its fifth annual Law Enforcement Torch Run's Tip-A-Cop event. Local law enforcement officers from the Dallas, Frisco, Plano and Collin County Community College Police Departments will serve Norma's Cafe guests at all five locations from 6 a.m. to 8 p.m. to raise awareness for the organization. Guest donations, tips and a portion of sales from the day will benefit Special Olympics Texas.

In continuing the 5-year tradition, Norma's Cafe will bring law enforcement officials and Special Olympic athletes together to work alongside the cafe's employees, serving guests who come to satisfy their "Mile-High" cravings for Texas-style home cooking and pies.

"Giving back is a part of who we are, and we are proud to uphold this tradition of giving with Special Olympics Texas," said Ed Murph, owner of Norma's Cafe. "Between our five locations, we are hoping the officers can touch many lives while bringing in more donations for Special Olympics Texas than we have in the previous four years."

Last year, Norma's Cafe and its guests were able to raise more than $12,600 from the event, which directly benefited Special Olympic athletes throughout Texas. Guests can support the Special Olympics by dining at any location throughout the Metroplex. As one of 77 chapters in North America, Special Olympics Texas provides year-round training and athletic competitions in a variety of Olympic-type sporting events for children and adults with intellectual disabilities.

Special Olympics established the Texas Law Enforcement Torch Run four years after its partnership with law enforcement began in 1981. The event, in which law enforcement officers carry the "Flame of Hope" through community streets to their local Special Olympics games, would become the largest grassroots fundraiser for Special Olympics chapters worldwide.
